

MISSION

Defend access to water as a fundamental right and development factor of Brazilian participatory democracy, promoting the right to water of citizenship and considering it as a social good, public, human food and essential for life and human peace, through linkage, social mobilization, training policy and qualifications of citizens and their organizations for more and better qualified political and civic actions for decisions making about the use of rivers and other public water bodies of Brazil.