

VISION

Being recognized as a reference organization for social movements and civil organizations which fight for the social value and multiple uses of water as a public good, toward the strengthening of democratic citizenship and management of rivers and water bodies through sovereignty and politically qualified actions of citizens and their civil organizations for management of public policies representing the demand of society related to uses and destination of public rivers and others water bodies of the country.