

POLITICAL ACTION

Inside Its mission, a political action of FONASC aims:

- Strengthen citizenship through empowerment, mobilization and coordination of movements of qualified acts of citizens and their organizations on management of rivers and public waters.
- Protection of water sources and springs.
- Protection of Rivers.
- Fighting political projects that benefit only group of people.
- Helps create rules and laws that protect waters. Combat deviations in the implementation of water legislation.
- Denounces against procedures and bad management of water.
- Supports and transfers technologies for performance of people and organizations in the country fighting for the waters.
- Values, encourages and promotes ethical and aggregating political conducts for social value of water and rivers.